WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY:

Each year in January, beginning on the 18th and concluding on the feast of the conversion of St Paul, January 24th, Christian churches and ecclesial communities observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. This week is an opportunity to ask God to help Christian Churches seek common ground and appreciation for each other. Prayer is the key which opens our hearts to Christ's desire for unity. In opening ourselves to prayer, we remember that we share a common baptism and faith in the Trinity.
